The "Day of the Lord" is both a great lament and an eager expectation. It will mark both a time of great apostasy and the coming hope of God's children. It is in a sense a time of great paradox.

Blessed is the Mother...

Who can hold onto her children while letting them go.
 Who puts tranquil home ahead of an immaculate house.
 Who knows a kind act will be remembered longer than an easy word.
 Who really believes that prayer changes things.
 Whose Bible never needs dusting.

*[Those who study the Scriptures] are seldom mistaken, because they are influenced by the love of Christ which rules in their hearts, and a regard for the glory of God.
