Bible Memory -

This week's passage is Proverbs 30:5, 6 - Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

Funeral Dinners -

The Deaconesses are putting together a list of folks who could help on short notice for funeral dinners. The areas where help is needed in on a clipboard on the bulletin table. If you could help, please sign up. Thank you!

Dear Ladies at Bethel Baptist -

Thank you so much for the wonderful Ladies retreat. Our church ladies were blessed and encouraged. We appreciated the great spiritual challenge from Mrs. McLain too! Thanks again.

In Christ,
Swan Valley Baptist Ladies

Jacob and Jaime Sechrest -

Being raised as a pastor's son, Jacob accepted Christ at the age of five and surrendered his life to follow God in the area of missions at eighteen. He furthered his education and received a B.A. in Missions in 2005. It was through a New Zealand missionary presentation in 2006 that God gave Jacob a burden for the people there. After a three-month survey trip to New Zealand, God confirmed this burden. He planned to return to New Zealand as a single missionary, and three days after his arrival home, he met Jamie; they were married in 2009.

Jamie trusted Christ at a young age. God used a mission trip to Chile, SA, to burden her heart for missions, and she surrendered to the call of missions in her third year of Bible college. When God brought Jacob, who was already planning to serve God in New Zealand, into her life, she was willing to follow. They have a son, Levi, who is two years old.
