Thank You, Father

In humbleness, we thank You, Father,
For the goodness You have shown,
For the blessings and compassion,
For comfort when we walk alone.

Thank You for our daily bounty,
For the love we share each day.
Thank You for the right to worship,
Each in our own chosen way.

Thank You for your hand that guides us,
Right from wrong, in all we do.
May we grow in understanding,
Always grateful-thanking You.

He who has the Word ruling in his heart is influenced by it in all his actions. Because the glory of God is the great aim before him, he is not permitted to go far wrong. Moreover, God has promised to show Himself strong on behalf of the one whose heart is perfect toward Him. He does this by regulating His providences and causing all things to work together for His good.
