This week's passage is Genesis 1:27-28 - So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

Dear Folks at Bethel -
What a gracious spirit you had in encouraging us in the new work God has for us in Dixon - it was fun to sing and fellowship with you all - and we thank you for the very generous gift. Also for those kind individuals that went above to show love and support - God knows who you are. We pray you will all receive a special blessing from our Lord for all of your kindness to us. To John and Hope who worked so hard to put our time together and others we don't know about - an extra thanks. We pray this time of celebrating our Lord will fill you with peace and excitement.

Love to all of you, Ben and Carlene Westphal

Dear Pastor Pestel and Friends -
As this year draws to a close we are reminded of God's faithfulness in providing for our needs through friends like you. Barb and I want to thank you for your faithful support over this past year. It means a great deal and we are grateful. Trust you all had a Blessed Christmas!

Eph. 6:19

*The verses we have just considered (Mt 6:22, 23) were spoken by Christ immediately after what He had been saying about the right laying up of treasures (Mt 6:19-21). It was as though He both anticipated and answered a question from His disciples. If it is so important for us not to lay up treasures in earth, but rather treasures in heaven, why is it that the men commonly regarded as the shrewdest, and considered to be the most successful, seek after earthly treasures, rather than heavenly?
