This week's passage is: Psalm 8:3-5 - When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

Missionary Prayer Band -

For our work project this time, we will be making hearts for preemies. Please bring fleece or soft flannel and needles, a thimble if you need one for sewing, color of thread to match your material, roller cutter or scissors for cutting; pattern will be provided.

Health Notes -

Bruce Mitchell had an appointment with his oncologist earlier this week; his blood work is normal and the nodes on his lungs have decreased another 40%.

Violet Palmer is recuperating in Heritage Place.

Matt Schrepfer is scheduled for surgery to have 2 herniated discs repaired on Jan. 22.

Netta Schrepfer has finished a 5-year Rheumatoid Arthritis medical study and is no longer receiving that medication, and has been experiencing more pain and less mobility lately; she is meeting with specialists soon.

They who have set their hearts on things of time and sense, are but spending their energies for that which will stand them in no stead when they come to their deathbeds. They labor for that which satisfieth not (Is 55:2). The reason they conduct themselves so insanely—pursuing so eagerly the pleasures of this world, which will bear nothing but bitter regrets in the world to come—is because their hearts are evil.
