Bible Memory -

This week's passage is: Romans 3:25-26 - Whom God hath set forth [to be] a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, [I say], at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

Camp Work Day -

Pastor Marc is putting out a plea for help! The boys dorm is just about done, and we will need to move bunks back in, and do a few other projects to get it ready. On top of that, we need to clean all the buildings and mow / trim the grounds. There will be something for everyone! We plan to start around 9:00 and work till we're done. We will take a break to enjoy lunch together.

"And He shall direct thy paths." The need to be directed by God is real and pressing. Left to ourselves we are no better off than a rudderless ship or an auto without a steering wheel. It is not without reason that the Lord's people are so often termed "sheep", for no other creature is so apt to stray or has such a propensity to wander.
