Consequences! It appears we do all we can these days to deny the reality of consequences. God, however, is the One ultimately in charge of consequences. And consequences are real.

Quotable: We cannot control the tragic things that happen to us, but we can control the way we face up to them.

FAMILY MATTERS

Coming Up -

Sun., July 24: Mark Rubin & family will be with us for our morning service; the Rubins are a part of our supported missionary family.

Jim Tillotson, M.M., Pres. Faith Baptist Bible College, Ankeny, IA, will be with us for our evening service; he is also speaking at Sr. High camp.

Mon., July 25: Sr. High Camp Begins

Sun., July 31: our next 5th Sunday, centering around communion, Charity Mapes will also be reporting on her missions trip to India

Mon., Aug. 1: Jr. Girls Camp Begins

Bible Memory -

This week's passage is: Romans 5:3-5 - And not only [so], but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; And patience, experience; and experience, hope: And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

Can You Help?

Missionary Prayer Band is collecting small jelly jars with lids for their Christmas project this year (gifts for the Indian children). If you have questions, please see Rainy Mead.

If you would be available during Jr. Girls week (Aug. 1-5) to help with crafts and could come to camp Tues., Wed and Thurs. afternoons from 1:00-1:45, please see Charlotte.

There are many people who think they want to be guided by God when some crisis arrives or some important decision has to be made. But few of them are prepared to meet the requirements intimated in the Scriptures. The fact is that God was rarely in their thoughts before the emergency arose. Pleasing Him did not exercise them while things were going smoothly.
