Hebrews 13:5 - [Let your] conversation [be] without covetousness; [and be] content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

Cards to Sign -

There are new birthday and anniversary cards to sign for our supported missionaries. Please take a moment to sign your name to these cards, our missionary staff enjoys receiving this greeting from us. Thank You!

Dear Bethel Friends -

Thank you for your continued prayers for our family and my Mom - you helped make her day brighter with cards throughout her stay in Iowa! What a blessing to know she is in heaven with Dad and her precious Savior! It's wonderful to stay in touch with some on the computer and we appreciate the kind sympathy notes from so many too. In the words of Dad..."Keep looking up - it may be today!"

Love,
Mary and Marv Goemat
(June Giesey's daughter and son-in-law)

How is the conscientious Christian to act when some emergency confronts him? Two paths, two alternatives, are before him, and he does not know which to choose. What must he do? First, let him heed that most necessary word, which as a rule of general application is ever binding upon us, "he that believeth shall not make haste" (1s 28:16). to act from a sudden impulse never becomes a child of God, and to rush ahead of the Lord is sure to involve us in painful consequences.
