Have you ever heard someone dismissively say, "Theology isn't for me" or "I don't think theology is important; we just need to love Jesus and love people"? While I understand the sentiment behind these statements, it troubles me. This idea suggests that theology and Christian living are opposed, when in reality they are "Two Sides of the Same Coin."

Quotable: Life is like a mirror, we get the best results when you smile at it.

This week's passage: Romans 6:17-18 - But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

This Evening -

Farewell for Paul & Susan Bray; join us following our evening service as we wish them God's blessing as they begin this new chapter of their lives.

Tuesday Evening Summer Picnics -

This is a fellowship time that was started several years ago. Our first one for this year will be Tues., June 20. Each family brings their own meat to grill and a dish to share. If you would like to host one at your home, there is a sign up with dates listed and hostess duties on the bulletin table.

The regenerated receives the spirit of "a sound mind" (2 Ti 1:7) so that he now sees himself to be not only without any righteousness of his own, but also is conscious of his weakness and insufficiency. From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink
