Tonight we will find ourselves in 1 Timothy 6 looking at the "Two Sides of the Same Coin" of wealth. Is it OK for a Christian to be rich? Must a Christian be poor? What is the Bible's position on rich and would-be rich Christians? On one side of the coin the message for the would-be wealthy Christian is "Don't lust after me!" On the other side of the coin the message for the already-rich Christian is "Don't hoard me!"

Quotable: Kind words can be short and easy to speak but their echoes are truly endless.

*"Thus saith the Lord; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord" (Jer 17:5).
A thorough acquaintance with ourselves ought to render the warning of this solemn passage unnecessary, yet sad experience proves otherwise.
