Tonight we will begin a new study entitled Understanding Our Times in the Light of Scripture. Through the course of our study, we will handle the big to little issues of our time, and we'll emphasize the eternal principles of God's Word that never change though the world around us continues to change. We'll begin our study by looking at the men of Issachar who "had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do."

Quotable: If you are all wrapped up in yourself, you are over-dressed.

*Have we not sufficient knowledge of ourselves—our changeableness and utter unreliability—to discover that he that trusteth in his own heart is a fool" (Pr 28:26)?
Then why should we suppose that any of our fellows are more stable and dependable? The best of Adam's race, when left to themselves, are spectacles of fickleness and frailty.
