We will look at a short video clip that has grabbed much attention of late and evaluate its message with the word of God. So come with your thinking caps on. Or better yet, come prepared like a Berean as we Understand the Times in Light of Scripture.

This week's passage: Acts 10:34-35 - Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

Birthday and Anniversary Cards -

Just a reminder to sign the cards for our missionaries on the table by the back entrance. There are many cards to sign, so allow a little time! These cards are a much appreciated greeting!

Dear Bethel Family -

Thank you all for your prayers, visits, phone calls, flowers, food and cards. This was such a blessing to my family and me.
Lois Mitchell

What then is grace? First, it is evidently something very blessed and joyous, for our text (Ac 20:24) speaks of the "good news of the grace of God." Secondly, it is the opposite of Law: Law and Gospel are antithetical terms: "The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ" (Jn 1:17). It is significant that the word "Gospel" is never found in the Old Testament.
