Roger and Marcy Smith -

Roger and Marcy were married June 3, 1978. In 1980, they joined a candidate class and arrived in Brazil in 1981. Their first church plant was in 1982, Candelaria Baptist, Recife and a second in 1994, Koinonia Baptist, Recife. In 2014, a church plant outreach in the interior city of Arcoverde was started. "Outback" is the term used to describe the arid climate this part of Brazil's interior has. There are constant water shortages which brings difficulties to the economies and cities of the region. They have three grown children and are grandparents. Marcy is Addie Cook's daughter and both Roger and Marcy were raised on the mission field.
