Evening Service ...... 6:00 pm

We will continue this evening describing the believer's hope. Hope is what we can, with confidence, anticipate in the future. It is necessary to describe this hope so that we can use it to secure and stabilize our lives.

Quotable: But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear. 1 Peter 3:15

Thank You -

Thank you for blessings received from my friends at Bethel during my illness. Thank you for the flowers, visits, cards, and above all your prayers. In Christ, Betty Trankle

The Gospel tells us that Christ died not for good people, who never did anything very bad; but for lost and godless sinners who never did anything good. The Gospel reveals to every sinner, for his acceptance, a Saviour all-sufficient, "able to save unto the uttermost them that come unto God by Him."

From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink
