Individually, we understand that we have one lifetime, limited resources, and eternal priorities. God has given us every resource we need. Your time, health, finances, relationships, influence--all of it comes from God. Our approach to these resources God has given us will determine our success in fulfilling God's purpose for our lives. We will begin discovering God's most important principles for managing His most valuable gifts as we strive to live "Lean and Mean in 2019."

This week's passage: Genesis 26:2-4 - And the Lord appeared unto him [Issac], and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of: Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I swore unto Abraham thy father; And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed;

Birthday Cards -
There are new cards to sign for our supported missionaries. Please take a moment and sign the cards. This is a great way to greet our missionary staff.

Dear Church Family -
Thank you for the wonderful recognition of our Veterans. Everything was so patriotic especially the decorations. The food and service were great.

Curt & Harriet Snyder

In this "mystery [of godliness]" we are called upon to behold the highest exhibition of the divine wisdom, goodness and condescension. The Son of God assumed manhood by union with Himself, thereby constituting the same person in two natures, yet infinitely distinct as those of God and man. From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink
