Christ's final command before He left Earth was for us to take the gospel to everyone, everywhere. Stewarding the gospel is a command for every Christian. We will examine Christ's command and take encouragement from some testimonies of those who understood the command and the fruit of their obedience. We need to commit to developing a lifestyle that properly stewards the gospel as we Strive to Live Lean and Mean in 2019.

Quotable: The smallest good deed is better than the greatest intention.

Bible Memory -

This week's passage: Romans 12:9-10 - [Let] love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. [Be] kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

Can You Help?

There is a sign up for mowing our church yard for the summer months. Many hands make light work! For questions, please see Les Miller.

Birthday & Anniversary Cards -

Please take a few moments to sign the cards for our missionary staff. It has been reported that they enjoy getting our greetings! Thank you!

The authority of Paul's apostleship had been called into question by certain Judaizers. In the first verses of 2 Corinthians 3 he appeals to the Christians there as the proof of his God-commissioned ministry. He defines the character of his ministry (v. 6) to show its superiority over that of his enemies.
