Evening Service 6:00 pm

This evening we will begin a new study in the book of Judges. The book of Judges is alarmingly relevant to today. It records the Israelites' descent into sin and its terrible consequences. The 12 heroes of the book, both male and female, seem larger than life at times, but they normal, imperfect, just like us. Judges is a stern reminder that God punishes sin but is always ready to receive the repentant back.

Quotable: The quickest way to correct another person's attitude is to correct your own.

Can You Help?
 On January 6-16, 2020, Ken Lynch is scheduled to participate in a tour of Israel for pastors, evangelists and missionaries. Since no other single preacher signed up to go, he is subject to a "single occupant" fee ($698) for all hotels in Israel where they will be staying. If you would like to help with this need, please use an envelop and mark it "Ken Lynch, Israel". Make your checks payable to "Bethel Baptist Church". Thank you!

*The Apostle Paul, while allowing the Law was glorious, shows that the Gospel is still more glorious. The old covenant was a "ministration of death," for the Law could only condemn. Therefore, though a glory was connected with it, yet it was such that man in the flesh could not behold (1 Cor 3:7). Then how much more excellent would be, must be, the glory of the new covenant, seeing it was "a ministration of the spirit" (v. 8)
