Evening Service 6:00 pm

This evening we will continue our study in the book of Judges. The book of Judges is alarmingly relevant to today. It records the Israelites' descent into sin and its terrible consequences. The 12 heroes of the book, both male and female, seem larger than life at times, but they are normal, imperfect, just like us. Judges is a stern reminder that God punishes sin but is always ready to receive the repentant back.

Quotable: When the outlook is not good, try the uplook.

Bible Memory -

This week's passage: Romans 12:16 - [Be] of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

Can You Help?

On January 6-16, 2020, Ken Lynch is scheduled to participate in a tour of Israel for pastors, evangelists and missionaries. Since no other single preacher signed up to go, he is subject to a "single occupant" fee ($698) for all hotels in Israel where they will be staying. If you would like to help with this need, please use an envelop and mark it "Ken Lynch, Israel". Make your checks payable to "Bethel Baptist Church". Thank you!

*It is more glorious to pardon than to condemn;
to give life than to destroy (1 Cor 3:9).
The glory of the former covenant therefore pales into nothingness before the latter (v. 10), further seen from the fact Judaism is "done away," whereas Christianity "remaineth (v. 11)
From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink*
