There will be a short business meeting this evening during the service.

Evening Service ..... 6:00 pm

This evening we will see that even though the people of Israel have come under divine sanction and were plundered again and again by the Canaanites they have failed to cast out, God still comes to Israel's rescue when the people realize their sin and cry out to him for 3 deliverances. This is a pattern we will see play out throughout this entire period. We will see that Israel's frequent cries for help did not come from a resolute faith in God's promises. No, they came from a desperate people who would rather do what is right in their own eyes and get away with it, than obey the commandments of the Lord. Of course, we would never do anything like that!

Quotable: The past cannot be changed, but the future is still in your power.

In 2 Cor 3:12 [Paul draws another contrast between the Old and New Covenants], Paul used "great plainness of speech," while the ceremonial law was taught by shadows and symbols. Moreover, the minds of the Israelites were blinded, so there was a veil over their eyes. From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink
