Evening Service ..... 6:00 pm

This evening we will see that even though the people of Israel have come under divine sanction and were plundered again and again by the Canaanites they have failed to cast out, God still comes to Israel's rescue when the people realize their sin and cry out to him for 3 deliverances. This is a pattern we will see play out throughout this entire period. We will see that Israel's frequent cries for help did not come from a resolute faith in God's promises. No, they came from a desperate people who would rather do what is right in their own eyes and get away with it, than obey the commandments of the Lord. Of course, we would never do anything like that!

Quotable: You can never do a kindness too soon, because you never know when it will be too late.

*When the writings of Moses were read they were incapable of looking beyond the type to the Antitype.
This veil remains upon them to this day, and will continue until they turn to the Lord (2 Cor. 3:15-16).
The covenant of Sinai was a ministration of condemnation and death, and the glory of it had to be veiled.
But it had an "end" (v. 13) which Israel could not see.
From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink*
