Afternoon Service After lunch (at camp)

This afternoon we will look at the life of the first judge, Othniel. We are told that the children of Israel "forgot the Lord their God." It wasn't that they had just grown lax, sleeping in and not going to the altar for the sacrifices on the Sabbath. It means that they were actively embracing the false religions of the Canaanites. As we see here, and in other places, such as Galatia, the path from faith and obedience, to full blown unbelief and apostasy can be a very short one.

Quotable: God looks not on the quantity of the gift, but the quality of the giver.

Ken Lynch: had a total knee replacement (right knee) this past week. He came through surgery well, is home now, his brother is staying with him during the recuperation period.
Matt & Juanetta Schrepper: Matt has completed his Cardio therapy after his open heart surgery a few months ago and has been given the OK to return to normal activities. Juanetta has a new high tech insulin pump that she has been enjoying for a few months now. God has amazingly provided this $15,000 machine, with their cost below $3,000. Her Rheumatoid Arthritis has caused moderate to severe nerve damage in her left elbow, Pray there will be good procedure and outcome for her.

The Mosaic system is called "the letter" (2 Cor. 3:6) because it was purely objective and possessed no inward principle or power. But the Gospel deals with the heart, and supplies the spiritual power (Ro 1:16). From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink
