Evening Service 6:00 pm

Last week we looked at the first judge, Othniel, of whom we have very little information. With our next judge, we may have information overload. When we read the account of Ehud (the shifty left-handed assassin) and Eglon (the obese bad guy) it is obvious that the Bible can be very "earthy." This passage describes bodily functions; it depicts all kinds of sinful behavior; it makes no bones about how foolish and sinful people can be. The author of Judges seems to poke fun at Eglon's weight and even describes a crowd of people waiting outside the toilet while Eglon relieves himself. The Bible doesn't tell us these things to entertain us or make us laugh. So what is the point? Join us tonight for the answer.

Quotable: A great difficulty today is that our knowledge has increased more than our wisdom.

Birthday Cards -

There are new cards on the table in the foyer for you to sign for our missionary staff. Please take a moment to do this, they really enjoy getting this greeting from us!

Bible Reading -

How are you doing with your daily Bible reading? There is a very do-able schedule on the bulletin table that allows you to read through the whole Bible in a year. Each day of the week you read 2 chapters in the Old Testament, 1 chapter in the books of Poetry and 1 chapter in the New Testament. Saturday and Sunday you read 2 chapters in the Old Testament. Today's reading is Jeremiah 7 & 8.

Christ is the spirit, the life, the heart and center of all the ritual and ceremonialism of Judaism. He is the key to the Old Testament, for "in the volume of the book" it is written of Him. So also Christ is the spirit and life of Christianity. He is "a quickening spirit" (1 Co 15:45), And "where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty."
