Evening Service 6:00 pm

This evening, as we return to the story of Gideon, we find Gideon preparing for war with the Midianites. As we study this well-known account, we will recognize that God's ways are not our ways. Gideon and the men of Israel must learn the difficult lesson that God's power is made perfect in human weakness. When we are weak, we must rely on the power of God. When all is said and done there will be absolutely no doubt that God alone has given Israel the victory. He is Israel's shield and defender. God alone can give Israel the victory. The same is true for us.

Quotable: It's better to sleep on what you plan to do, than to lie awake because of what you've done.

A Chuckle -

The pro football team had just finished their daily practice when a large turkey came strutting onto the field. While the players gazed in amazement, the turkey walked up to the head coach and demanded a tryout. Everyone stared in silence as the turkey caught pass after pass and ran right through the defensive line. When the turkey returned to the sidelines, the coach shouted, "You're terrific!!! Sign up for the season and I'll see to it that you get a huge bonus." "Forget the bonus," the turkey said, "All I want to know is, does the season go past Thanksgiving Day?"

*"Who being in the form of God" affirms the absolute Deity of the Son, for no mere creature, no matter how high in the scale of being, could ever be "in the form of God." Three words are used concerning the Son's relation to the Godhead. First, He subsists in the "form" of God, seen in Him alone.
