Evening Service 6:00 pm

As we turn to Judges 9, we meet Abimelech, one of the most conniving and deceitful men in the Bible. Even though this account is very dark, we will see the sovereign hand of God. God uses this wicked man to punish the wickedness of His people. Then he brings judgment down upon the head of Abimelech. God will not allow his redemptive purposes to be thwarted by anyone.

Quotable: Isaiah 7:14 - "Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel."

*Because He held the rank of one of the Three co-eternal, co-essential, and co-glorious persons of the Godhead, the Son reckoned His full and perfect equality with the other two was His unchallengeable portion. Phil 2:6 is no doubt a latent reference to Satan's fall. Even though the anointed cherub (Eze 28:14) he was infinitely below God, yet he grasped at equality with Him. (see Is 14:14)
