Evening Service ..... 6:00 pm

This evening we will look at the life of Samson. Samson was blessed to have godly parents who desired their son to be all that God intended him to be. What a grand start. But we learn quickly that having godly parents isn't enough when it comes to a child choosing to be obedient to the will of God or not. It isn't how we start the race of life that matters; it is how we finish the race of life that is all-important.

Quotable: A lot of kneeling will keep you in good standing.

*It was God Himself who was "manifest in the flesh" (1 Ti 3:16).
The One born in Bethlehem's manger was "The mighty God" (Is 9:6), and heralded as, "Christ the Lord" (Lk 2:11). Let there be no uncertainty on this point. Had He been "emptied" of any of His personal excellency, had His divine attributes been laid aside, then His satisfaction or sacrifice would not have possessed infinite value.
