Evening Service ..... 6:00 pm

This evening we return to the confusing turmoil of Samson's life. God has a plan to deliver Israel from the hand of the Philistines, and He has purposed to use Samson to accomplish His plan. What does a lion, wedding, foxes and a jaw bone have in common? Tonight we will answer that riddle.

Quotable: "I have never known anyone to accept Christ's redemption and later regret it."

Faith Promise -

Please turn in your Faith Promise cards today. The amount promised helps our Missions Committee determine our missions giving for the year. Thank you.

Thank You -

I thank my God for my church family and I thank you for your prayers, phone calls and visits. I'm better, still coughing but that will go--some where - some time. Again, thank you and God bless.

Dona Rutherford

Reports -

Just a reminder for Committee heads, if you have not already done so, to turn in your report for your area of service at Bethel by Feb. 2. These are compiled into one report for our Annual Meeting, Feb. 19. A copy of the report submitted last year was put in your mailbox. If you have questions, please see Janis. Thank you.

The glory of His person was not in the slightest degree diminished when He became incarnate, though it was (in measure) concealed by the lowly form of the servant He assumed. Christ was still "equal with God" when He descended to earth. It was the "The Lord of glory" (1 Co 2:8) whom men crucified. From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink
