Evening Service 6:00 pm

Tonight we will conclude our study of Judges. What a challenge this study has been as we encountered such a clear illustration of the depravity of man. We were forced to recognize man's tendency to set God and His Word aside and attempt to replace them with "that which is right in our own eyes." May we have the strength to resist the way of man and faithfully follow God and His Word.

Quotable: Plan as if Christ's return is many years away, but live as if He will come today.

Can You Help?

We are collecting prizes for the VBS store. This year we would like "mouth motivationals", such as: candy bars, cookies or cookie packages, soda. We would also have need of several larger prizes such as: beach towels or water toys. If you have any questions, please see Charlotte. Items can be placed in the shopping cart in the foyer. Thank you!

Can You Help with Two Clean Team Needs?

Some one is needed to: 1) vacuum the auditorium every other week and 2) mop the kitchen floor and six bathroom floors. Please contact Hope for more information. Thank you!

The humanity of Christ was unique. History supplies no analogy, nor can His humanity be illustrated by anything in nature. It is incomparable, not only to our fallen human nature, but also to unfallen Adam's. The Lord Jesus was born into circumstances totally different from those in which Adam first found himself, but the sins and griefs of His people were on Him from the first.
