Evening Service ..... 6:00 pm

This evening we will look at three specific Evangelistic models. Having considered our view of God, His Word, and the need of man, we will recognize several common elements in these models. Among them is something that Hudson Taylor understood and mentioned, "The great need of every Christian worker is to know God." Join us this evening to be encouraged in the task that God has placed upon us all.

This week's passage: Matthew 5:13, 14 - Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

It needs to be maintained that the two natures are united in the one person of Christ, but that each retains its separate properties, just as the soul and body of men do, though united. Thus, in His divine nature, Christ has nothing in common with us—nothing finite, derived or dependent. But in His human nature, He was made in all things like to His brethren, sin excepted.
