Evening Service 6:00 pm

Tonight we will look at the remaining obstacle that would hinder all efforts to live upon the things we have been learning. If it is allowed to remain in place, it will make obedience impossible. This obstacle is pragmatism. Pragmatism is a philosophy that values things based upon their apparent effectiveness. "If it works, it must be right." Like the counterfeits of the knowledge of God—knowledge by hearsay, textualism and true truths—pragmatism is offered at a fraction of the cost of a real knowledge of God. Knowing God, seeing Him for who He truly is, requires us to surrender everything to follow Him. It costs us the "right" to rule ourselves that sin has deceitfully offered us.

Quotable: Don't tell me that worry doesn't do any good. I know better. Most of the things I worry about don't happen.

Bible Memory -

This week's passage: Psalm 145:8, 9 - The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy. The Lord is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.

Annual Harvest Dinner -

There will be two sign-ups in the weeks to come, one to sign if you are planning to attend and one to help with food items, set-up and clean-up.

The person of the God-man is unique. His birth had no precedent and His existence no analogy. He cannot be explained by referring Him to a class, nor can He be illustrated by an example. The Scriptures, while fully revealing all the elements of His person, yet never present in one formula an exhaustive definition of that person, nor a connected statement of the elements which constitute it and their mutual relationships.
