Evening Service 6:00 pm

Lucifer, the great enemy of the church, will never be quiet until he is cast eternally into the Lake of Fire. He is always ready to deceive and mislead those who are not careful to keep close to Scripture. Nowhere is this more evident than in the realm of revival. Tonight we will examine Scripture in order to obtain Biblical expectations concerning revival. How is it that we obtain the nearness of God?

Quotable: "A thorough knowledge of the Bible is worth more than a college education"
 (Theodore Roosevelt, America's 26th President)

Thank You -

Dear Bethel Family,
 Thank you for your generosity and care expressed with words and a love offering. We, the Webers, count it a privilege to be numbered among you, and I am privileged to be your pastor, to pastor a church that is interested in knowing and serving the God of the Bible. May God continue to richly bless Bethel as we faithfully serve Him.
 Pastor John and the Weber Family

*This amazing Personality does not center in His humanity, nor is it a compound one originated by the power of the Holy Spirit when He brought those two natures together in the womb of the virgin Mary.
 It was not by adding manhood to Godhead that His personality was formed.
