Evening Service 6:00 pm

This evening we will return to answering the questions, "What is Calvinism, and is it Biblical." We will examine this subject from a historical and theological perspective. How are we to understand the "whosoever wills" of Scripture with the "sovereignty" of God? Perhaps a new vantage point will make Scripture's assurances unshakable, its cautions sobering (but not devastating), and its affirmations of God's love for all humanity radiant and unpoisoned. May God grant us wisdom and understanding as we "study to show ourselves approved unto God."

Quotable: Luke 2:6,7 – "And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn."

Don't forget to sign the birthday cards for our missionary staff on the table in the foyer. It has been reported that they enjoy getting this greeting from us!

The great mystery of the Trinity is that one Spirit should subsist eternally as three distinct Persons: the mystery of the person of Christ is that two separate spirits (divine and human) should constitute but one person. The moment we deny the unity of His person we enter the bogs of error.
