Evening Service 6:00 pm

Tonight we will conclude our examination of Calvinism. Specifically, we will examine several passages of Scripture giving you the common Calvinistic and Arminian interpretations and contrasting them with a Biblical interpretation based on the tenets we have been studying.

Quotable: Jesus is bigger than any obstacle you face! Greater is He that is in you, than he that is in the world.

FAMILY MATTERS

Coming Up -

Tues., Jan. 12: Missionary Prayer Band, 12:00 noon
Thurs., Jan. 21: Men's Bible Study, 9:45 am, at the church; Ladies' Bible Study, 10:00 am, at Shirley Harrison's home

Bible Memory -

This week's passage: Isaiah 1:18 - Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

Faith Promise -

Prayerfully consider your part in our Faith Promise for Missions. Please return the tear-off portion of the pink information sheet and turn it in by Sunday, January 17. This will help our Missions Committee determine our missions budget for 2021. Thank you!

Article – Take Action On What You Know (Continued on back)

Calendars are a big part of everyone's life right now in my part of my world. In November, the Bill Rice Ranch has a big calendar meeting that encompasses everything that is happening here and at West Branch. In December, I usually photocopy my paper calendar so that I have a second copy to which I can add the many Christmas events that are added to the calendar. Of course, in January we are looking at a new calendar and all the things we hope to accomplish in the coming year.

In the incarnation the second Person of the Trinity established a personal union between Himself and a human spirit, soul, and body. His two natures remained and remain distinct, and their properties or active powers are inseparable from each nature respectively.
