Evening Service 6:00 pm

Tonight we will finish answering the question "how can a loving God send anyone to hell?" We don't need to be intimidated by this question, but every Christian needs to wrestle with and understand both question and answer. In order to understand it we need to turn to Scripture where God reveals Himself and His own character enabling us to understand what it means for God to be love. We must also prepare to logically present the Biblical answer as we follow God's instructions of being "ready always to [give] an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear."

Quotable: We find courage to stand, when we kneel before the Lord.

Bible Memory -

This week's passage: John 14:6, 7 - Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

Faith Promise -

Prayerfully consider your part in our Faith Promise for Missions. Please turn in the tear-off portion of the pink information sheet today. This will help our Missions Committee determine our missions budget for 2021. Thank you!

Sunday Evening Service -

We are considering during the winter months, having our Sunday evening service following lunch, similar to what we've been doing on the 5th Sundays, but providing your own lunch. Please let Pastor John know your preference.

*That it is the union of the divine and human natures in His wondrous person which fits Him for His mediatorial office, is also apprehended more or less clearly. But that is about as far as the light of nearly all Christians can take them.
That the God-man subsided in heaven before the world was is a blessed truth which has been lost to the last few generations.*
