Afternoon Service ..... 1:15 pm

This afternoon we will study Proverbs 8:22-31 with the intent of answering the question of whether it speaks "of wisdom, Christ, or both." Good men differ on the answer to this question. Others use this passage to falsely teach that Jesus is a created being. In our work of understanding this passage we will apply a literal method of interpretation, meaning our goal is "finding the meaning of words according to grammar, syntax, and cultural setting and in correlation with the rest of Scripture."

Quotable: God has no grandchildren; either you know Him firsthand, or you do not know Him at all.

The Servitude of Christ: what amounts to a contradiction in terms, supremacy and subordination, Godhood and servanthood, are opposites. Yet this is what is before us: that the Most High abased Himself, the Lord of glory assumed the form of a menial, the King of kings became a subject. "Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high" (Is 52:13)
