Afternoon Service ..... 1:15 pm

This afternoon we will be returning the subject of stewarding our citizenship responsibilities. We will handle a different aspect of this subject once a month. It is important that we understand these responsibilities within a solid, Biblical framework as we by God's grace walk "wise as serpents and harmless as doves."

Quotable: The riches of His free grace cause me daily to triumph over all the temptations of the Wicked One, who is very vigilant and seeks all occasions to disturb me.
~ George Whitfield

Bible Memory -
This week’s passage: James 4:6-8 - But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

VBS Help Needed -
Please fill out the VBS volunteer form if you would be available to help. Dates: Mon-Fri., Mar. 22-26. Thank you!

“Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high” (Is 52:13) [First consider Behold].
This is not only a call for us to focus our gaze upon and adoringly consider the One before us, but also and primarily as an exclamation or note of wonderment. What an amazing spectacle to see the Maker of heaven and earth in the form of a Servant, the Giver of the Law Himself become subject to it... How this ought to stir our souls. “Behold!” wonder at it, be filled with holy awe, and then consider what our response ought to be.
From “Gleanings in the Godhead”, by A.W. Pink
