This afternoon we will examine the following question in the light of Scripture. "Can a homosexual be a Christian?" There are many who attempt to twist the Word of God to defend homosexuality. If they are willing to acknowledge that the Bible is indeed God's Word, they will often say something like, "yes, that's what it says, but that's not what it means." God's Word gives us clear instruction on this subject no matter what the culture or the culturally influenced church says.

Quotable: Rejecting things because they are old-fashioned would rule out the sun and the moon.

*"Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high" (Is 52:13) [Next consider "shall deal prudently"].
 Christ's dealing prudently means He acted wisely. He never erred, never acted foolishly, never did anything which needed to be corrected, but the wisdom from which He acted was not of this world, but was "from above," and therefore was "pure, then peaceable, gentle" (Ja 3:17).
 O for more of such prudence—obtained by communion with Christ, drinking in of His spirit.*
