Afternoon Service 1:15 pm

This afternoon we will be returning the subject of stewarding our citizenship responsibilities. We will handle a different aspect of this subject once a month. It is important that we understand these responsibilities within a solid, Biblical framework as we by God's grace walk "wise as serpents and harmless as doves."

Quotable: The world is not concerned about the storms you've faced but rather if you kept sailing through them ~ Dr. John R. Rice

Bible Memory -

This week's passage: Philippians 2:3-4 - Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

Can You Help -

Items for prizes for 2nd-6th graders are needed for our VBS store: candy, candy bars, gum, soda and cookies are highly valued. Dollar Store novelties are also enjoyed! Thank you for your help; our time is short!

Since He came not to judge, but to save, since His mission was one of grace and mercy, since He ministered to the needy and healed the sick, will not men gladly receive Him? Many would naturally think so, but in so doing they overlook the fact that the Lord Jesus is "the Holy One." None but those who have the principle of holiness in their hearts can appreciate ineffable Purity. Such an assumption...ignores the solemn fact of human depravity: "the heart is desperately wicked" (Jer 17:9). How can the Holy One appear attractive to those who are full of sin!
