Have you ever said or heard someone say "hey, you woke me up?" Today being "woke" has taken on a whole new meaning. The main expression of "wokeism" we currently face is something called Critical Race Theory. CRT is fast becoming America's new institutional orthodoxy. Yet most Americans have never heard of it—and of those who have, many don't understand it. We need to know what it is, and more importantly, we need to know what our Biblical response should be and how to handle the "wokearistas."

Quotable: If the Lord fails me at this time, it will be the first time. ~George Muller

Thank You from Karen Gardiner

Dear Friends,
Thank you for your faithful part you have in sharing both financially and in prayer in my life. I don't think I ever realized how important it is when we take time to genuinely uphold others in prayer during the times they face major challenges. There are moments in our lives when we hardly know how to pray or have the capability to pray when emotionally we are sort of numb.

I am walking a new path but one which many have traveled before and that is encouraging. God is faithful and I am ever thankful Glenn was not left here on earth debilitated. He would not have been a happy camper if not physically able to continue to serve his Lord in active ministry. I do wonder what is going on in heaven. I also have moments when I would like his helping hand or his listening ear and wise words of wisdom. I am thankful for a well-marked Bible from notes I took as he preached. He loved to share the Word and the Lord gave him the privilege of preaching right to the end.

As you pray for me, would you ask that I might have direction as to how the Lord would like me to serve Him during this new time in my life. Covid struck before I had become actively involved in the church here in Denver, PA and I do look forward to serving in some capacity now that my broken arm has healed and I should soon be able to drive.

In Him, Karen Gardiner
