Unfortunately we have represented justification as an end in itself. The saving work of Christ extends far beyond freedom from sin's penalty to a life of purpose and an abiding joy. Hebrews is about grasping that purpose.

Quotable: The trouble with being punctual is that nobody is there to appreciate it.

 Art & Deb Brammer will be traveling to MT for only a few days in August for Art's mom's memorial service. She went to be with the Lord May 26.

*The crucifixion of Christ, what they saw -
 They beheld the incomparable perfections of the Crucified One.
 The two thieves crucified with Him mocked the Redeemer (Mt 27:44);
 but at the eleventh hour one of them was "granted repentance unto life" (Ac 11:18).
 Turning to Jesus, he said, "Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom" (Lk 23:42). The Lord did not decline his appeal and say,
 "you have sinned beyond the reach of mercy"; but answered,
 "Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise" (v. 43). They witnessed an unparalleled display of sovereign grace of one of the greatest sinners.
