Today we are looking at six presuppositions of the faith. Faith is a life that is build on the promises of God and the realities of life. We are not a people who are walking blindly into the future. We are rather an informed people who are preparing well for a certain future.

Quotable: Following the Lord with doubt in your mind is like driving with the brakes on.

*The crucifixion of Christ, what they saw ~
 They beheld and heard what was blessed to their conviction and conversion.
 ...God was pleased to soften the callous hearts of these Roman soldiers and illumine their heathen minds. "Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God" (Mt 27:54).
 We regard this as another of the miracles at Calvary—a miracle of amazing grace.
 And we expect to meet in heaven the man who hammered the nails into the Saviour's hands and thrust the spear into His side—God's answer to Christ's prayer, "Father, forgive them." So there is hope for the vilest sinner if he will surrender to Christ and trust in His blood.
