Afternoon Service.....1:00 pm

This afternoon we move into the last of our author's foundational material. Foundational work is not often pleasant. It is heavy, hard and often dirty work, but it is of incredible importance. Most of present day Christianity is built without this foundation because it seems to distasteful.

Quotable: It isn't so much ability that God wants, but availability and pliability.

*The crucifixion of Christ, what I see ~
I see an unveiling of the character of man. "Now all things that are discovered are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light" (Eph 5:13). Christ is "the true light" (Jn 1:9)--the essential, divine, all-revealing light; consequently all men and all things stood exposed I n His presence. The worst things predicated in Scripture o f fallen human nature were exemplified in the days of Christ. God says that the heart of man is "desperately wicked" (Jer 17:9), and it was so demonstrated by the treatment of His beloved Son.
