Afternoon Service.....1:00 pm

Have you ever been called selfish? Who taught you to be selfish? Our honest answers to these questions are most likely the same for all of us. Certainly God has called us to put away selfishness. This afternoon we will look at the subject of selfishness in the context of suicide. Among others, we will answer the question "what does the Bible say about those who commit suicide if only God has control over life and death"?

Quotable: In the sentence of life, the devil may be a comma; but never let him be the period.

*The crucifixion of Christ, what I see -
I see an unveiling of the character of man.
Not only was Christ unwelcome here, but also men hated Him
"without a cause" (Jn 15:25). He gave them every reason to admire Him, but they had an inveterate aversion for Him. The Word declares,
"the carnal mind is enmity against God" (Rom 8:7).
Multitudes go through the form of paying homage to God, but a "god" of their own imagination. They hate the living God, and were it possible would rid the universe of Him.
This is clear from their treatment of Christ, for He was none other than "God manifest in flesh" (1 Ti 3:16).
From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink*
