Afternoon Service.....1:00 pm

This afternoon we will answer the question about the origin of evil/sin. Did God, who is Creator of all things, create evil? Maybe you have heard someone make the following challenge. "If God is all-loving and all-powerful, then why do we have evil?" Then they usually try to put you in a corner with a follow-up question. "Is God a bad God and won't do anything about evil, or is He a good God and can't do anything about evil?" Of course there is a third possibility. The Bible tells us that God is neither bad nor limited in His power. So....where did evil come from?

Quotable: When praying, don't give God instructions, just report for duty.

*The crucifixion of Christ, what I see -
I see an unveiling of sin.
Sin! Satan employs all his subtle arts to render it attractive, and sets it forth in the most appealing colors. One of the great designs of the incarnation was to bring to light the hidden things of darkness.
The presence here of the Holy One served as a brilliant light in a long-neglected room, revealing its squalor and filth. "If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin; but now they have no cloke for their sin" (Jn 15:22)
