You are invited to join us for lunch right after the morning service. The Mapes have prepared us a Ghanaian Meal.

Afternoon Service ..... 1:00 pm

This afternoon the Mapes, our missionaries to Ghana, will give a report of what the Lord has done since our last time with them. They will also share what their future plans will be. This will be an exciting time of praising God for what He has done and what He will do.

Quotable: "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!
Romans 10:13-15

Bible Memory -

This week's passage: Romans 10:13-14 - For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent?

Community Fall Festival

Sunday afternoon following our morning worship service. This fall we are going to try something different. This event will take place in our church parking lot. Our purpose is to reach out to our immediate community with food, fun, and fellowship. There will be a select number of games and fire pits.

Caring Bridge – Janis Hoffman Updates

Caring Bridge is a convenient way for Sam and Janis to keep us informed about Janis' current condition and needs. This helps them from becoming inundated with caring calls of concern. You can see the current update, choose to comment, send messages, and sign up to receive updates in your email. You will need to create an account if you don't already have one. Please let Pastor John know if you need help. The web address is - <https://www.caringbridge.org/visit/janishoffman>

When you think of a missionary, what would your definition be? Often times, definitions of a missionary include some variation of the phrase, "one who goes overseas in order to help others." However, this type of definition doesn't grasp the true concept of a missionary's work and tends to alienate certain disciplines and people who may actually fall into the realm of missions. So what would an accurate definition be? One who is sent. Paul reminds us that unless one is sent, no preaching of truth will take place (Romans 10:14-16). For many, this definition appears over simplistic. However, this is an accurate definition of a missionary because it conveys both authority and action. One who is sent is not merely acting upon his or her own authority, but instead the authority of the one who sent him or her. Thus a missionary is not merely representing himself or his own ideas to the world, but that of someone else who is greater. Furthermore, the idea of being sent implies that the missionary is being sent to complete some specific task, otherwise there would be no need to be sent out.
