Spanish philosopher George Santayana is credited with the aphorism, "Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it," while British statesman Winston Churchill wrote, "Those that fail to learn from history are doomed to repeat it." Paul says in 1 Corinthians 10:11 "Now all these things [Israel's history] happened unto them for ensamples; and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come." It is important to know our history and learn from it. And so we will work on that this afternoon.

Quotable: Man's way leads to a hopeless end; God's way leads to an endless hope.

Bible Memory this week -

Romans 8:24-25 - For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

Bible Reading Schedules -

Don't forget to pick up your Bible Reading Schedule. Two options are available this year: the one we've used over the last several years from Faith Baptist Bible College and a chronological schedule. Please ask if you don't see what you are looking for.

Faith Promise -

The Faith Promise Offering is a way to demonstrate our love for God, carry out the Great Commission, put faith into practice, abound in the grace of giving, lay up treasures in heaven, and bring glory to God. There is more information on our website, or if you'd like a printed copy, please ask. Faith Promise cards will be in the bulletin next week. Please turn in your Faith Promise card by Sunday, Jan. 23.

To My Bethel Family -

Thank you for the beautiful poinsettia plant and for Doris & Les delivering it to me. I miss all of you and came home 12/24.

The Redemption of Christ ~

Christ was righteous not as a private person, not for Himself alone, but for us sinners and our salvation. He acted as God's righteous Servant and as His people's righteous sponsor. He lived and died that all the infinite merits of His obedience might be made over to them.
