Have you ever experienced true darkness, the kind where you can't even see your hand in front of your face? It's amazing how darkness makes even things that are familiar look so different. A period of world history that stretched from the fourth century all the way to the 16th century is labeled the Middle Ages, or more appropriately, the Dark Ages. What made the Dark Ages dark? Are we heading to a second "Dark Age?" This afternoon we will use Scripture to evaluate history in an attempt to answer these questions.

Quotable: When God ordains, He sustains.

*The Redemption of Christ ~
Because we were unable to reach up to the holy requirements or righteousness of the Law, God brought His righteousness down to us: "I bring near my righteousness" (Is 46:13). That righteousness was brought near to sinners when the Word became flesh and tabernacled among men; it is brought near to us in the Gospel, "for therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith" (Ro 1:17).
