As much as the Reformation offers us things for which we ought to thank God, there are also some negative things of which we must be aware of. We don't want to whitewash this history because we so appreciate the good things the Reformers did. The weakness of Reformed theology is that people took the progress made by the Reformers and presumed that there was no further progress to be made.

Quotable: Most people want to serve God, but only in an advisory position.

Bible Memory this week -

John 10:9 & 10 - I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

*The Redemption of Christ ~
The divine plan of redemption fully satisfies the claims of the Law.
There was nothing in all its sacred injunctions which Christ did not perform, nothing in its awful threatenings which He did not sustain.
He fulfilled all its precepts by an unspotted purity of heart and a perfect integrity of life. He exhausted the whole curse when He hung on the cross, abandoned by God, for the sins of His people.*
