Afternoon Service.....1:00 pm

Have you ever experienced true darkness, the kind where you can't even see your hand in front of your face? It's amazing how darkness makes even things that are familiar look so different. A period of world history that stretched from the fourth century all the way to the 16th century is labeled the Middle Ages, or more appropriately, the Dark Ages. What made the Dark Ages dark? Are we heading to a second "Dark Age?" This afternoon we will use Scripture to evaluate history in an attempt to answer these questions.

Quotable: When praying, don't give God instructions; just report for duty.

Annual Meeting -

Our Deacon Board serves as our Nominating Committee for Church Officers for the coming year, voted on at our Annual Meeting. Bethel members may submit nominations for church offices to the Nominating Committee. An information packet was put in members' mailboxes with instructions. Please turn your nomination sheet in to Pastor John or one of the Deacons by Jan 30.

*The Redemption of Christ ~
In the righteous Redeemer we find the answer to the question,
"How can those who have no righteousness of their own and who are utterly unable to procure any, become righteous before God?"
How can man, who is a mass of corruption, draw nigh unto the ineffable Holy One, and look up into His face in peace?
He can do so by coming to God as unrighteous, acknowledging his inability to remove unrighteousness, and offering nothing to palliate Him.*
