Afternoon Service.....1:00 pm

Have you ever missed the point? Here's one for you. A blonde woman is riding in a two-seater aircraft when the pilot has a fatal heart attack. She radios the tower which assures her that they are experienced and will be able to help her get to the ground. They ask for her height and position and she responds, "I'm 5'4" and in the front seat!" In Matthew 16 the disciples miss the point. How often do we behave like the disciples? This afternoon we will look at an important truth. If we fail to remember our past, we will be likely to fear our future.

Quotable: God judges us not by what others say, but by what we do.

Bible Memory this week -

1 Peter 1:24, 25 - For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

* * * * *

*We mutter and sputter, we fume and we spurt:
We mumble and grumble, our feelings get hurt;
We can't understand things, our vision grows dim,
When all that we need is a moment with Him.*

~ Mary Helen Anderson, Log of the Good Ship Grace

The Call of Christ ~

*"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart:
and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light" (Mt 11:28-30). Familiar as the sound of those words are to professing Christians, there is a pressing need for their careful examination... The mere fact a verse is so frequently quoted is no proof that we really see its import;
yet, such familiarity has precluded careful examination and renders it far more likely we do not rightly grasp its truth.*
