Afternoon Service.....1:00 pm

This afternoon we will take a survey of the Covenants. Covenantal Theology and Dispensational Theology frequently differ from each other in their approaches, for they lead to contrasting views concerning the Millennium or future Kingdom of God foretold in the Scriptures. These differences lead to contrasting views regarding the permanent existence of Israel as a nation and Israel's permanent ownership of the promised land.

Quotable: We should read the Bible not only as a duty, but as a privilege.

*The Friendship of Christ ~
Christ is a constant Friend; One that "loveth at all times" (Pr 17:17).
He continues to be our Friend through all the vicissitudes of life—no fair-weather friend who fails us when we need Him most. He is our Friend in the day of adversity, equally as much as in the day of prosperity. Was He not so to Peter? He is "a very present help in trouble" (Ps 46:1), and evidences it by His sustaining grace.
From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink*
